Mr.Bharat Mehta A.G.P. for State

CORAM: A.S.OKA, J.
DATE : SEPTEMBER 18,2007.

P.C.:

1. Heard Advocates for the parties. Prayer clauses (a) cannot be considered in view of detailed order passed by this court on 26th July 2001. In so far as prayer clause (b) is concerned, it appears that the Applicant has furnished bank guarantee for withdrawing the amount deposited by the State Government. If the applicant furnishes adequate security for the amount which is already withdrawn, the bank guarantee can be ordered to be returned back. Hence, the Civil

Application is disposed of by passing the following order :

i) If the Applicant furnishes adequate security for the amount already withdrawn to the satisfaction of the reference court, the bank guarantee furnished by the Applicant shall be discharged and returned to the applicant. It is made clear that the reference court will hear the State Government before accepting the security. It is made clear that the bank guarantee shall be kept alive by the applicant and it will be discharged and returned only after the applicant furnishes security in terms of this order.
